RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On January 27, 2015, Usman Nabi, a representative of H Partners, emailed Mr. McLane, requesting an in-person meeting. From that date through February 6, 2015, Mr. Nabi and Mr. McLane exchanged scheduling e-mails. In that exchange, Mr. Nabi noted his preference to meet "sooner rather than later" because he would like to communicate something that is "time-sensitive." Mr. Nabi and Mr. McLane scheduled a telephone call for February 7, 2015, after the end of the Company's existing black-out period on February 5, 2015, when 2014 earnings were going to be released.

On February 7, 2015, Mr. Nabi telephoned Mr. McLane. In that call, Mr. Nabi expressed his displeasure with Mark Sarvary as the Company's Chief Executive Officer and delivered an ultimatum – that Mr. Sarvary be terminated as Chief Executive Officer, that four of the Company's current directors, including Mr. McLane, Mr. Mastro, Mr. Sarvary and one other director, resign immediately, and that Mr. Nabi be put on the Board of Directors and on the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Mr. Nabi additionally demanded that he be named Chair of a new Board committee to lead the search for a new Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Mr. Nabi threatened to launch a "public fight" if the Board of Directors did not comply with all his demands by 3 p.m. on the afternoon of February 13 - i.e., within six days.

On February 10, 2015, H Partners filed a Schedule 13D with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") disclosing beneficial ownership of 9.97% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. In this Schedule 13D, H Partners failed to disclose any mention of its February 7, 2015 call with Mr. McLane or its outstanding demands for an immediate Board seat and the other Board and management changes, the related deadline and the threat of a "public fight." Later that day, Mr. McLane contacted Mr. Nabi to arrange a meeting between Mr. Nabi and Mr. Sarvary, Mr. McLane and certain other Company directors to discuss H Partners' views. Mr. Nabi replied later that day, indicating that a meeting was "not productive" and refusing to engage in any further discussion other than implementation of Mr. Nabi's specific February 7 demands. Mr. Nabi also noted he was still expecting a response to his demands by 5 p.m. on February 13.

On February 17, 2015, H Partners wrote a letter to certain members of Tempur Sealy's Board of Directors, confirming the demands of H Partners for (i) the immediate termination of Mr. Sarvary as Chief Executive Officer of Tempur Sealy, (ii) the immediate resignation of Messrs. McLane and Mastro from the Board, and (iii) the appointment of Mr. Nabi to the Board of Directors, and as a member of the Compensation Committee and Chair of a newly-established Chief Executive Officer search committee.

On March 16, 2015, Tempur Sealy commenced mailing its Proxy Statement for the 2015 Annual Meeting. In connection with the proxy statement, the Company also mailed a letter to stockholders detailing the significant progress and accomplishments achieved under the leadership of the Tempur Sealy Board and management team. In the letter, the Company also reiterates its strategy to continue delivering industry leading growth, margin improvement, and superior value for stockholders, including: leveraging and strengthening the Company's comprehensive portfolio of iconic brands and products; expanding distribution and seeking highest dealer advocacy; expanding margins with a focus on driving significant cost improvement; leveraging global scale for competitive advantage; and making accretive acquisitions of licensees and joint ventures.

In addition, the Tempur Sealy letter sets the record straight regarding H Partners, a stockholder of the Company, and its campaign of false statements and misrepresentative attacks on Tempur Sealy, its Board and management team. As the letter notes, Tempur Sealy believes that H Partners has failed to outline any constructive steps to enhance the Company's strategy, capital structure or operating plans, and instead advocates high-risk and value-destroying leadership changes, while making inaccurate statements about its history of communicating with Tempur Sealy. The letter also noted that H Partners' sudden, critical public stance is inconsistent with its previous positive communications in support of the Company's performance, leadership and strategic oversight.

Also on March 16, 2015, Mr. McLane e-mailed Mr. Nabi expressing a desire for an expedient and mutually satisfactory resolution to H Partners' demands. Mr. McLane indicated that the Company's Board of Directors was prepared to work with H Partners in identifying an additional, mutually acceptable and independent director candidate with relevant executive operating experience, as well as talents and skills complementary to those of the Company's current directors.

On March 18, 2015, Mr. Nabi e-mailed Mr. McLane a letter in reply to Mr. McLane's March 16 e-mail. The letter dismissed as "woefully inadequate" the Company's proposal to find an additional, mutually acceptable and independent director candidate, and in a clear reference to its February 7 demands — immediate termination of Mr. Sarvary as CEO, immediate resignation of Mr. Sarvary and Mr. McLane and two other directors and election of Mr. Nabi to the Board and Compensation Committee and head of a new CEO search committee — expressly limited any future dialogue to a discussion of "real change", including meaningful representation for H Partners on the Company's Board of Directors.

On March 23, 2015, H Partners announced that it had filed preliminary proxy materials with the SEC in which it stated that it intended to solicit Tempur Sealy stockholders to vote against the re-election of Mr. Sarvary, Mr. McLane and Mr. Masto. On March 30, 2015 H Partners filed updated proxy materials with the SEC.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS REJECT H PARTNERS' PROXY SOLICITATION. THE BOARD URGES STOCKHOLDERS TO VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE BOARD'S NOMINEES NAMED IN TEMPUR SEALY'S PROXY STATEMENT.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

Participants in the Solicitation

Under applicable regulations of the SEC, members of the Board and certain officers and employees of Tempur Sealy may be deemed to be "participants" with respect to Tempur Sealy's solicitation of proxies in connection with the 2015 Annual Meeting. Certain information concerning participants is set forth in the Proxy Statement, this Supplement and in Annex A hereto.

Method and Cost of Proxy Solicitation

As a result of the proxy contest initiated by H Partners, Tempur Sealy will incur substantial additional costs in connection with its solicitation of proxies. Tempur Sealy has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. ("D.F. King") to assist in the solicitation of proxies for a fee of $250,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses. D.F. King will employ approximately 75 people to solicit proxies from Tempur Sealy's stockholders. Tempur Sealy has agreed to indemnify D.F. King against certain liabilities arising out of or in connection with D.F. King's engagement.

Expenses related to the solicitation of proxies from stockholders, excluding salaries and wages of our employees, are expected to aggregate up to approximately $3.2 million, excluding expenses Tempur Sealy would typically incur in connection for the election of directors in an uncontested election. These expenses are expected to include the fee payable to our proxy solicitor; fees of outside counsel and other advisors to advise Tempur Sealy in connection with the solicitation; increased mailing costs, such as the costs of additional mailings of solicitation material to stockholders, including printing costs, mailing costs and the reimbursement of reasonable expenses of banks, brokerage houses and other agents incurred in forwarding solicitation materials to beneficial owners of our common stock, as described above; and possibly the costs of retaining an independent inspector of election. To date, we have incurred approximately $400,000 of these solicitation costs.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements made in this Supplement and other written or oral statements made by or on behalf of Tempur Sealy may constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws. When used in these communications, the words, “assumes,” “estimates,” “expects,” “guidance,” “anticipates,” “projects,” “plans,” “proposed,” “intends,” “believes,” and variations of such words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements relating to the Company’s expectations regarding its strategic growth initiatives, cost and revenue synergies, delivering stockholder value, its base growth targets and internal operating margin improvement targets, its plan to reduce expenses and improve Sealy’s operating margins, its growth opportunities internationally and abroad and its plans to grow sales and profitability faster than its industry. All forward looking statements are based upon current expectations and beliefs and various assumptions. There can be no assurance that the Company will realize these expectations or that these beliefs will prove correct.

Numerous factors, many of which are beyond the Company’s control, could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed as forward-looking statements. These risk factors include risks associated with the Company’s capital structure and increased debt level; the ability to successfully integrate Sealy Corporation into the Company’s operations and realize cost and revenue synergies and other benefits from the transaction; whether the Company will realize the anticipated benefits from its asset dispositions in 2014 and the acquisition of brand rights in certain international markets in 2014; general economic, financial and industry conditions, particularly in the retail sector, as well as consumer confidence and the availability of consumer financing; changes in product and channel mix and the impact on the Company’s gross margin; changes in interest rates; the impact of the macroeconomic environment in both the U.S. and internationally on the Company’s business segments; uncertainties arising from global events; the effects of changes in foreign exchange rates on the Company’s reported earnings; consumer acceptance of the Company’s products; industry competition; the efficiency and effectiveness of the Company’s advertising campaigns and other marketing programs; the Company’s ability to increase sales productivity within existing retail accounts and to further penetrate the Company’s retail channel, including the timing of opening or expanding within large retail accounts and the timing and success of product launches; the effects of consolidation of retailers on revenues and costs; the Company’s ability to expand brand awareness, distribution and new products; the Company’s ability to continuously improve and expand its product line, maintain efficient, timely and cost-effective production and delivery of its products, and manage its growth; the effects of strategic investments on the Company's operations; changes in foreign tax rates and changes in tax laws generally, including the ability to utilize tax loss carry forwards; the outcome of various pending tax audits or other tax, regulatory or litigation proceedings; changing commodity costs; and the effect of future legislative or regulatory changes.

There are a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained in this Supplement or in other communications from the Company. There are important factors, many of which are beyond the Company's control, that could cause its actual results to differ materially from those expressed as forward-looking statements in this Supplement or in other communications from the Company, including the risk factors discussed under the heading "Risk Factors" under ITEM 1A of Part 1 of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014. There may be other factors that may cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Any forward looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward looking statements for any reason, including to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statements are made or to reflect the occurrence of anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances.
